JUNE 2014

Other than regular classes every year we organise a picnic for our students during summer vacations. This year on 14th June 2014 we organised Excursion cum Picnic at Worlds of Wonder, Noida. The Laxman Public School management was kind enough to provide us 4 school buses for comfortable transport on complimentary basis for our students and members to the picnic spot at NOIDA. The DFDW arranged free of charge tickets and food for the poor students while members of DFDW paid for the full fees. A great experience for all students and staff members. Like every year, more than 100 deaf students enjoyed this picnic and the tasty lunch which the authority of the Worlds of Wonder had arranged specially for our party at discounted rate. They helped us in a very comfortable way to enjoy the trip.

JULY 2014

Raksha Bandhan is one of our fund raising project. The Executive Committee members and the staff members cooperated in making different designs of rakhis and circulated among well wishers and the firms before the commencement of Raksha Bandhan Festival. It is stated with extreme dissatisfaction that due to global business down, we could not get sufficient fund to carry on our Rehabilitation Projects. Even the teaching staff also suffered non receipt of their salaries for the last 3-4 months.

The DDA Slum Department had issued us notice to pay the huge rent of the building so we had to deposit the rent inspite of our limited fund resource.

AUGUST 2014

As on past occasions, we organized post Independence Day cum Picnic on 16th August 2014 at the Central Park, Connaught Place, New Delhi . The picnic spot was very clean and weather was also pleasant. On this occasion the Tricolour was furlled and the Secretary Ms Uma Kapoor delivered speech on the topic” Independence Day Celebration” and paid tribute to Mt. Gandhiji and great Shaheeds. Some interesting competitions were arranged and the winners were distributed prizes. Everyone enjoyed the tug of war games . Refreshment were served to the participasnts. The expenses were borne by collection of picniic fees.

OCTOBER 2014

From October onward till Nov. 2014 the DFDW artists started participating in Various exhibitions and fairs during Dwali Christmas and New Year Carnivals. At

- Mumbai on Oct. 21-22, 2014 (organised by IMC Ladies Wing))
- Blind Relief Association – Diwali Bazaar
- CRPF JNU
- Different office premiises in Noida, Gurgaon, Colleges , Dilli Haat, Pitampura etc. Etc.

The stalls are allotted on complimentary basis still we need more days to sell the handicrafts at the maximum possible. This is the time when we are able to exhibit the handicrafts made by deaf women and in turn deaf artisians get opportunity to earn.

Ms Rajyalakshmi Rao, Chairperson of AIFDW with the Team Members of DFDW

Our all products were much appreciated by the customers. The beautifully decorated diyas were the main attraction besides the murtis of Laxmi Ganesh in particular. The cloth handicraft items like side bags, cloth and fancy ladies purses, file folders, books , albums made of khadi cloth and craft papers and lether craft items were in much demand. In other stalls during exhibitions the sale was good and the well wishers were also helpful to attract the customers to buy our handicraft items and help in generating fund for our Training Project.

Also Engineers India Ltd. (E.I.L) under the CSR scheme, gave grant in aid to support few courses at our Vocational Training Center for under privileged deaf populace. We thank and heartily appreciate their support. The donated equipments photos are shown as below:

NOVEMBER 2014

From Nov 17-18, 2015 - Delhi Foundation of Deaf women sent its students and members took part in 11th Delhi Chess Championship for Deaf organized by the Silent Sports Promotion Council. It was a good opportunity for deaf players to show their talent.

1st NATIONAL CULTURAL FESTIVAL FOR DEAF WOMEN November 27-30, 2014 :: Bal Bhavan and FICCI, New Delhi

The Delhi Foundation of Deaf Women (DFDW) organized 1st National Cultural Festival for Deaf Women under aegis of ALL INDIA FOUNDATION OF DEAF WOMEN during Nov. 27 – 30, 2014 at the National Bal Bhavan and FICCI Auditorium, New Delhi

The Cultural Festival included Talent Competitions in Mehendi, Rangoli and Hair Dress Designing, Folk Dances and Drama Competitions

On 27th Nov. 2014 – Cultural Troupes coming from various states were picked up from railway stations by our volunteers to the Bal Bhavan Hostel. Approx. 150 cultural artists representing Assam, Andhra Pradesh, Delhi, Haryana, Karnataka, Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra, Odisha and Punjab took part in the 1st National Cultural Festival for Deaf Women. They were comfortably lodged and boarded in National Bal Bhavan Hostel, Kotla Road, New Delhi from Nov. 27-30, 2014.

First Day – 28th Nov. 2014 : All the participants were excited to take part in Talent Competitions - Mehendi Designing, Rangoli Designing and Hair Styling in a hall in Bal Bhavan premises. The winners were selected through the Panel of Jury – the Judges- Ms Urvashi Gupta, Ms Tamuja Jha, Ms Rekha and Priya Rathore

2nd Day : 29th Nov. 2014 : In the morning Drama Competition was held in the Auditorium, FICCI, 1 Tansen Marg New Delhi. All the states' artists performed well in dramatic art. The Hyderabad Foundation of Deaf Women performed best drama on Swatchh Bharat in which the P.M. Mr Narendra Modi was shown sweeping the street. The audience were overwhelmed on this excellent performance which bagged first prize. Delhi Foundation of Deaf Women bagged 2nd rank while the Mook Badhir Sangathan, Indore stood third in the competition.

At 3 P.M. the Chief Guest Hon'ble Justice of Supreme Court Mr. Jasti Chelameshwar graced the occasion by lightening the lamp followed by Guest of Honour Mr. K V. Chowdary – Special Adviser in Ministry of Finance, Govt. Of India, and AIFDW's Ms Rajyalakshmi Rao, Chairperson, Ms Minu Singh, Vice Chairperson, Ms Uma Kapoor, Secretary-General, and Ms Kajal Dhawan, Vice-President, AIFDW and Ms Kajal Dhawan, Vice President.

Hon'ble Justice Mr. Jastiji 's presence was a morale booster to the young talents coming from all over India. Sh. K. V Choudharyji and other philanthropists also grace the occasion. Thereafter the Dance performances started. This show was an eye opener for many of them. They could not even think or imagine that people with this unfortunate disability could dance so well on music, act or participate in drama so well. The effort was heart touching. Our aim was to give a platform to those children who finally proved that they can do anything if they are given the opportunities.

We are thankful to the IOCL as main sponsor, and the Tech Mahindra Foundation, Jeevan Mala Foundation, Padma Vazirani, Mahajan Imaging center and Jawarlal Nehru Port Trust for financial as well moral support.

We express our heartfelt thanks also to Ms Rajyalakshmi Rao and Ms Minu Singh for their fullest cooperation to make the event a great success. Credit goes to all the cultural artists of state women foundations for excellent performances in cultural festival. Mementoes were presented to all the Guests, Organizing Committee Members of the 1st National Cultural Festival for Deaf Women and to the Management Committee of the AIFDW.

Feb. 10-15, 2015 - 23RD PRANAY MILAN SAMMELAN (Matrimonial assistance for Deaf)

An official trip to Mumbai to help in 23rd PMS held in Mumbai on Feb. 13, 2015. This was first time under ageis of AIFDW Mumbai Chapter the Bombay Foundation of Deaf Women organised Pranay Mlan Sammellan for western states. The Chief Guest Ms. Juhi Chawla an actress, graced the occassion and blessed the participants. DFDW's Officials helped Bombay Chapter to organise the event most successfully.

It was first time in Mumbai that with help of DFDW a large number of boys and girls participants along with their parents had came to take part in it. The Delhite's newly wed couple who had got married through our 22nd PMS event held last year, were invited to show to the audience and media that the DFDW is doing great work in field of matrimonial assistance hence the AIFDW management committee has also decided to follow up in their states jurisdiction. Special credit goes to Ms Rajyalakshmi Rao who arranged the banquet and food on complimentary basis,

Legal Assistance :

Many deaf married women had approached us to provide them justice and solve domestic violence problem occured among their in laws and husband. We have solved many issues by cousselling their in laws and also advised them to learn sign language because the deaf women are not able to understand properly their communication hence lots of misunderstandings cause disurbances in their married life.

JOB PLACEMENT : We have coordinated with other NGOs who help in providing suitable jobs to the hearing impaired. Those women who suffer ill treatment from their husbands were sent to them and the result was fruitful as some of them were able to get job.

Besides this, we help the deaf students to become self employed by making different cloth handicrafts and help them in marketing the products.

MARCH 2015

DFDW was to organise 24th Pranay Milan Sarmmelan event in New Delhi scheduled on April 11, 2015. also being the year end closing , we were more occupied with accounts etc.

At the conclusion , we are to state that the year 2014-2015 was a good year. Though we suffered very meagre of financial assistance still we managed to organize many events to create deaf awareness among the public and treat the deaf people as a respectable citizens.

We are thankful to the Deptt. Of Women and Child Development, NCT of Delhi Govt. For releasing grant in aiid, but need more grants to sustain huge rent bill of the building and other essential services besides too Training Center.
